

FORMATION PROGRAMME

Diocese of Fredericton

Unit Description

TITLE:	Leadership in Ministry
INSTRUCTOR(s):	David Edwards
DAY-LONG LEARNING EVENT
DATE:	Saturday, 26 October 2013
LOCATION:	Brian Mulroney Hall # 202 825 Montgomery Street St. Thomas University, Fredericton

OVERVIEW:

In 1962 Thomas Kuhn coined the phrase "paradigm shift." What he meant was that throughout human history, people have changed the way they view the world. It is as if they change glasses. We are living in such a time – the change from modernism to post-modernism. This means facing the question: How do we lead in a new paradigm? This unit will give a basic introduction to postmodernism and then concentrate on collaborative leadership within our context.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

- Postmodernism for Beginners, James N. Powell, New York 1998 ISBN 0-86316-188-X
- The Community Tool Box Chapter 13: Orienting Ideas - Sections 1-8 and 11.

SUPPLEMENTARY READING:

- Mind Tools: Appreciative Inquiry Mindtools.com
- Strategy+Business: Four Traits of Collaborative Leaders Strategy-Business.com
- Servant Leadership: A Journey into the Nature of Legitimate Power and Greatness, Robert Greenleaf, Paulist Press, New Jersey, 1977

WRITTEN SUBMISSION TOPICS:

In at least 1000 words ...

- 1) Devise an outline for a "collaborative project" based on material from the Community Tool Box.
OR
- 2) Compare and contrast the principles of collaborative or servant leadership with leadership experienced in the past.

04 September 2013